Impact of recent EU decisions applying the 'EU state aid provisions' to tax treatment of European and multinational companies

Many practitioners are familiar with the use of various jurisdictions in an attempt to gain favorable tax treatment. Recent EC decisions have tackled the use of 'EU state aid provisions' in this area, which impacts European and multinational companies. This expert panel examines some of these impacts and is a "must attend" event for those offering cross-border advice.

Estate and Tax Planning:
The US-Irish Connection

Ireland and the United States enjoy deep and strong bonds following over two centuries of close relations. Indeed, few Americans cannot claim some Irish ancestry, and it is a rare Dubliner with no family "across the pond". These relationships pose particular challenges when it comes to estate and tax planning, particularly for those who maintained strong ties to both places. If you have clients with interests in Ireland and the U.S., you will want to hear from this expert estate and tax counsel.

OPTIONAL TOURS

Guinness Storehouse Day

Pick up at the hotel and transfer by coach to the Guinness Storehouse with your chaperone. Here you can enjoy fast track group entry for a self-guided tour before a return transfer to the hotel.

The highlight of a trip to Dublin is a visit to the home of the 'black stuff'. Arthur Guinness founded the family business in 1759 at St James's Gate. The name, the stout and the brewery have become treasured icons of Ireland. The Storehouse, impressively built in 1904 as a fermentation plant, is now an interactive museum on several floors. Learn all you can about this famous brew and its key ingredients. Finally, pull yourself up to the almighty Gravity Bar on the 7th floor for the most scenic complimentary pint in Dublin.

Walking Tour

Pick up at the hotel and enjoy a walking tour of the city centre with a local guide.

Dublin is one of Europe's oldest cities. As well as retaining its historical and cultural charms, Dublin offers trendy bars, elegant restaurants and stylish, cosmopolitan shops and hotels. There's never been a better time to visit Dublin, a city that is rivaling Europe's elite for hip appeal! With a wealth of attractions, many within walking distance of each other, Ireland's largest city provides a sense of history, culture, music and a bustle that is truly unique. You will see Trinity College, Merrion Square, Dublin Castle, Churches and public squares. There are many great literary names associated with the city including James Joyce and Oscar Wilde.
