

Sheila M. Sproule, Esq.

NYS Unified Court System
*Division of Professional and Court
Services Office of ADR and Court Improvement*
25 Beaver Street
New York, NY 10004
(212) 428-2862
ssproule@courts.state.ny.us

Sheila Sproule is a management analyst at the NYS Office of ADR Programs, Division of Court and Professional Services of the Unified Court System, where she works on ADR policy-related initiatives and programs. She serves as deputy counsel to the Mediator Ethics Advisory Committee, which provides written responses to mediator ethical dilemmas applying the Community Dispute Resolution Program Standards of Conduct for mediators. Sheila is the immediate past president of the Association for Conflict Resolution for Greater New York and is a former adjunct professor at Fordham Law School's Mediation Clinic where she served for 10 years. She is a graduate of Fordham College and Fordham Law School.