NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.

ROSE MARY BAILLY, ESQ.

Rose Mary Bailly is on the staff of the Government Law Center of Albany Law School. Prior to that, for sixteen years she was the Executive Director of the New York State Law Revision Commission. Rose Mary Bailly's work includes developing recommendations for legislative reform. Ms. Bailly has written and lectured widely on the topic of guardianship law; most notably she is author of McKinney's Practice Commentaries for Article 81 of the Mental Hygiene Law and powers of attorney governed by the General Obligations Law. She is also an Associate Editor of Guardianship Practice in New York State (Robert Abrams, Esq., Editor-in-Chief, NYSBA 1998, Supp. 2004).

Ms. Bailly is an active member of the New York State Bar Association. She is also the editor-in-chief of the Government, Law and Policy Journal, a joint publication of the New York State Bar Association and the Government Law Center of Albany Law School. She is a fellow of the Brookdale Center on Aging at Hunter College. Ms. Bailly received her law degree from Fordham University School of Law, where she was Commentary Editor of the law review.

LEONA BEANE, ESQ.

Leona Beane is Professor Emeritus of Law at Baruch College (City University) in New York City, where she taught for 21 years. Professor Beane received her B.B.A. and M.B.A. from the City College of New York, M.S. from Columbia University and J.D. from New York Law School. She has been a practicing attorney involved in estates, guardians and A.D.R., and is an active member of several bar associations. She has chaired and/or lectured at several programs over the years for the New York State Bar Association: "Drafting Corporate Documents for the Close Corporation," "Forming and Advising Businesses" and others. She chaired and lectured at programs on guardians and Article 81 of the Mental Hygiene Law, having lectured in different parts of the state for several different Bar Associations. In 1998 and 1999, Ms. Beane lectured at several judicial seminars on guardianship topics, at the Judicial Institute in April 2003, and the Guardianship Roundtable in May 2011. She serves on the Board of Advisors to the Vera Guardianship Project and assisted in the initial training of its staff.

She is a past president of both the National Association of Women Lawyers and the Association of Small Claim Arbitrators, and is an arbitrator and mediator for the U.S. District Court, Eastern and Southern Districts. She is also an arbitrator for the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). She is a mediator in the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court, New York County; the Bankruptcy Court, Eastern and Southern Districts; the EEOC and Safe Horizon, in addition to several other forums. She had been Chair of the Arbitration and ADR Committee of the New York County Lawyers' Association for four years. She serves on the Executive Committee of the Dispute Resolution Section of the New York State Bar Association for 10 years; and is chair of its Subcommittee on Mediating Trusts, Estates, Guardianships and the Elderly. She is a member of the New York chapter of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. She is on the Board of Directors in the N.Y. Women's Bar Association and is Co-Chair of its Trusts and Estates Committee and Co-Chair of its ADR Committee.

She has published several articles on various legal topics, including partnership law, contracts, guardians, guardians ad litem and mediation relating to estate matters and guardianship. She also is a chapter author and an Associate Editor of Guardianship Practice in New York State (NYSBA 1998).

In recent years she has been devoting more of her practice to ADR matters. She has organized CLE programs on "The Advantages of Mediating Trusts and Estates Disputes" for the NYSBA. She is also the author of the part on Mediation for the New York State Bar Association Practical Skills Series.

IRA SALZMAN, ESQ.

Ira Salzman is a partner in Goldfarb Abrandt Salzman & Kutzin LLP, a law firm with offices in New York City and White Plains. The firm concentrates its practice in guardianships, elder law and estates. Mr. Salzman is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) and a former editor of its quarterly publication. He is a member of the Elder Law and Special Needs Section of the New York State Bar Association, the current co-chair of its Guardianship Committee. Mr. Salzman has lectured at and chaired Office of Court Administration certified training programs for court evaluators and guardians. He has also lectured on elder law for numerous bar associations, not-for-profit corporations and Fortune 500 companies. His articles have appeared in Elder Law Attorney and in NAELA publications.
