NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.

MICHELE A. SANTUCCI, ESQ.

Michele A. Santucci is considered one of the leading business and corporate attorneys in New York State. Ms. Santucci has more than 30 years' experience in the private practice area of business, partnership and corporate law and more than 20 years' experience in the legal practice of business and professional immigration law. In her corporate practice, Ms. Santucci provides counsel in the formation and operation of business organizations and limited liability companies, drafting organizational agreements and business contracts, corporate dissolution matters and taxation, among other areas.

Ms. Santucci has authored more than 35 publications in the area of business and limited liability law, distributed by such legal publishers as the New York State Bar Association, West Publications and Matthew Bender/Lexis Nexis. Aside from her work on NYSBA's New York Lawyers' Practical Skills Series, she is a contributing author to West's New York Practice Series General Practice in New York, and currently serves as an editor and revision author for White's New York Corporations, Volume 5 (Matthew Bender-LexisNexis).

As a frequent lecturer in the area of business law, Ms. Santucci has served in the various capacities of overall state planning chair, program chair, moderator and speaker for more than 20 Continuing Legal Education programs. In 2008, she presented the CLE program on "Limited Liability Companies" for the New York Attorney General/New York State Legislature, and served as program chair and moderator for the NYSBA CLE program titled "Preparing and Drafting Organizational Documents for LLCs and Corporations." In June 2001, Ms. Santucci was appointed to the 25-member Statewide New York State Bar Association Committee on Continuing Legal Education.

Ms. Santucci is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia, New York State, the U.S. District Court Northern District and the United States Tax Court and is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association and the Business Law Section of the NYSBA. She received her B.A. in political science from Manhattanville College in Purchase, New York, and her J.D. from George Mason University School of Law in Arlington, Virginia. Since 1997, Ms. Santucci has served as Immigration Legal Counsel to Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N.Y. Formerly, she was a partner in the Troy law firm of Pattison, Sampson, Ginsberg & Griffin, P.C., and is currently of counsel to that firm.
