FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The New York State Commission on Judicial Nomination today announced that it has extended the deadline for submitting applications for the forthcoming vacancy on the Court of Appeals, which is due to the retirement of Associate Judge Susan Phillips Read. Applications for the Associate Judge vacancy must now be submitted to the Commission no later than August 24, 2015. The extension is intended to ensure that the size and composition of the pool of applicants for the State's highest court represents the broadest possible spectrum of qualified candidates, and to give applicants additional time during these summer months. The Commission will take a fresh look at all applications submitted for this vacancy, evaluating candidates who previously submitted applications for the Chief Judge vacancy and indicated interest in being considered for the Associate Judge vacancy, as well as considering all new applicants.

Applications may be downloaded from the Commission's website, <http://www.nysegov.com/cjn/>. Applications may be filed electronically by emailing them to CJN_Applications@gtlaw.com, or otherwise submitted by mail to the Commission's Counsel at the above address.
