Mark Berman is a Partner in all of Ganfer Shore Leeds & Zauderer's Litigation Practices, as well as in its Cooperatives and Condominiums, Professional Liability, and Employment Law Practices. He heads the Technology Counseling Practice and co-heads the Title Litigation Practice.

A well-rounded litigator and dynamic communicator, Mr. Berman represents both plaintiffs and defendants in commercial disputes, ediscovery conflicts, real estate, employment and securities litigation. Mr. Berman is a seasoned appellate attorney and has been a court appointed discovery master in a significant business litigation. His broad experience gives him a comprehensive perspective, which allows him to quickly assess the options, spot obstacles, develop creative solutions, and position clients for successful outcomes.

A substantial part of Mr. Berman's practice focuses on business, real estate and title litigation. He represents public and private companies, partnerships, lenders, real estate developers, property owners, condominiums, cooperatives and their sponsors, as well as individuals, in disputes related to breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, insurance, construction, licensing, and trespassing. He also resolves conflicts between shareholders, boards and managing agents. A leader in sophisticated title litigation, Mr. Berman represents title insurance companies, their insured owners and lenders, and agents.
