Mandeep Trivedi is a principal in the firm's Valuation Advisory Services Practice. As the leader of the valuation team, she brings more than 15 years of experience to complex business valuations and financial analysis. She works with clients in a diverse range of industry verticals, including hedge funds and other alternative investment vehicles, technology, software development and licensing, entertainment, construction, staffing, hospitality and restaurants, and medical and dental practices, as well as a broad variety of service, manufacturing, and wholesale distribution companies.

Leading the firm's Valuation Advisory Services Practice, Mandeep manages the preparation and delivery of top-quality valuations of businesses, private equity, professional practices, and income-generating assets such as derivatives, intellectual property such as music and literary catalogs, and other complex securities. In the area of valuation and economic damages measurement, she helps clients address a variety of matters, including financial reporting compliance, mergers and acquisitions, estate and gift tax planning, corporate financial planning, shareholder actions, matrimonial actions, commercial damages, and other economic damages.

Mandeep is qualified as an expert witness before the Supreme Court of the State of New York. She testified before the September 11th Victim Compensation Fund regarding the economic damages suffered as a result of a wrongful death of a New York City firefighter during the September 11, 2001 terrorist attack, among other testimony.

Prior to joining Citrin Cooperman, Mandeep was a public equity analyst and financial advisor to high net worth clients
