

Eric R. Teifke, Esq.
Monroe County Public Defender
10 Fitzhugh Street North Rochester,
NY 14614
(585) 753-4210

Erik Teifke serves as the Second Assistant Public Defender in Monroe County where he has worked since 1995. Erik handles violent felony and major drug cases. He is a frequent lecturer at in-house CLEs presented to junior and senior staff at the Monroe County Public Defender Office and has lectured at programs presented by the NYSACDL, NYSDA, and various county bar associations. Erik has previously held the position of Director of the Syracuse University School of Law's Criminal Defense Clinic and is currently a Professor of Practice at the law school. Erik is a mentor with the Onondaga County Bar Association Assigned Counsel Program where he assists less experienced attorneys on the assigned counsel panel. Erik previously served as an adjunct professor at Monroe Community College for several years.