David F. Wertheim is General Counsel for the Workers' Compensation Board, based in Schenectady. David received his J.D. from Cardozo Law School in 1991, and has spent the majority of his career as an attorney with New York State. He has been with the Board since 1997, initially as a staff attorney. He has worked in various positions including Acting Director of the Administrative Review Division, Senior Administrative Law Judge for the Albany district, Deputy General Counsel, and in July 2016 he was appointed as General Counsel. Among key programmatic and legislative initiatives have been: the implementation of electronic filing; the creation of special hearing parts for permanent partial disability determinations, and special hearing procedures for opioid weaning and addiction recovery; a virtual hearing center for multi-point video hearings; the 2017 enactment of Paid Family Leave; regulatory amendments in several practice areas, including attorney's fees, appeals, and stipulations; and the 2017 workers' compensation reform package. David resides in Saratoga Springs.
