

Steven G. Leventhal, Esq.

Leventhal, Cursio, Mullaney
& Spector, LLP

Managing Member

15 Remsen Avenue

Roslyn, NY 11576

(516) 484-5440

sleventhal@lcmslaw.com

Steve is an attorney and CPA, and managing member of the Roslyn general practice firm of Leventhal, Cursio, Mullaney & Blinkoff, LLP.

Steve is the Associate Village Justice for two Long Island villages, a hearing officer for the New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics (JCOPE), and an arbitrator for the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).

Steve serves as Village Attorney for the Village of Muttontown, and as counsel to various county, town and village boards and commissions. Steve formerly served as chair of the Nassau County Board of Ethics; and currently serves as counsel to the Boards of Ethics of the County of Nassau and the Towns of North Hempstead, Oyster Bay, Huntington and Southampton.

Steve is a member of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association. He is co-chair of the Ethics and Professionalism Committee of the Municipal Law Section of the NYS Bar Association, and a member of the Committee on Standards of Attorney Conduct. Steve served by Presidential appointment as a member of the NYS Bar Association Task Force on Local Government Ethics. He is Vice President of the Nassau County Bar Association and a director of the Nassau Suffolk Legal Services Corporation.

Steve served as an adjunct professor at Long Island University, where he taught graduate level courses in Regulatory Agencies, Administrative Responsibility and the Legal Environment in the Health Sector, and Environmental Law.

Steve has lectured and written extensively on the subjects of government, legal, corporate and medical ethics. He is frequently engaged to provide ethics advice, training and continuing professional education programs to municipal officers and employees throughout the State, municipal associations, bar associations, law firms and universities.