Mark E. Housman is the principal of Housman & Associates, P.C. Mark has specialized in the representation of attorneys for over 25 years in all phases of federal and state litigation, mediation and arbitration. Specializing in legal malpractice defense, Mark has represented attorneys in virtually every conceivable underlying discipline.

Mark has extensive appellate experience and has represented attorneys and insurance companies regarding a host of risk management issues, coverage and bad faith litigation. He has written and lectured on legal malpractice and risk management issues and is an annual lecturer for the New York State Bar Association on these topics.

Mark was admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York and New Jersey in 1984 and is also admitted before the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, the District of New Jersey and the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. He is a member of numerous Bar Associations and is a member of the NYSBA Association Committee on Insurance Programs.
