

Alexis Lamb, Esq.

Bliss Lawyers
Associate Director of Talent

(203) 309-2577
alamb@blisslawyers.com

Alexis Lamb is an Associate Director for Bliss Lawyers where she is a member of the talent team and interviews candidates and helps manage the process of vetting candidates for client consideration. She also provides business development support to help grow the company's expanding client network. Prior to joining Bliss, Alexis was Managing Director and head of the New York office of Princeton Legal Search Group, where she focused on direct-hire placements of attorneys at AmLaw 200, mid-sized, and boutique law firms. Additionally, she recruited for in-house legal departments of New York City area corporations and financial institutions.

Alexis also honed her recruiting expertise as a Senior Partner in the New York office of Lucas Group and as a Managing Director in the Hong Kong office of Kinney Recruiting. Prior to her legal recruitment career, she practiced as a private equity and mergers and acquisitions associate in the New York City office of O'Melveny & Myers and as a US Capital Markets associate in the Hong Kong office of Linklaters. Alexis's global background in both legal recruiting and law practice make her an invaluable asset to the Bliss Lawyers' recruiting team.

She received her B.A., magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, from the University of Southern California and her J.D., with honors, from the University of Texas at Austin. Alexis lives in New York City.