

2020
2019

Bar Leaders Best Practices Webinar Series

September 10, 2019 | 12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

Topic:

Operations: Succession Planning to Enhance Your Bar's Leadership

Guest Panelists:

Sindy Geary, Executive Director, Broome County Bar Association

Bret Parker, Executive Director, New York City Bar Association

Richard Thomas, Deputy General Counsel and Director of Public Interest, New York State Bar Association

Janna Whearty, Executive Director, Dutchess County Bar Association

During any given year, your bar association's leadership can make or break your operations – how you interact with your members and strengthen your association community. Panelists will address the need for succession planning and policies, practice tips and pitfalls encountered, how to engage Millennials in leadership positions and long-term succession plans. The session is open to all bars with leadership positions (whether staffed with a director or administrator or not) and will also include time for questions, comments and an exchange of ideas from participants after the presentations.

This event is free of charge. Plus, you don't need to leave your office; enjoy your lunch at your desk and simply call in for an informative and lively discussion.

Register here to receive dial-in / connection information.

Hosted by NYSBA's Committee for Bar Leaders

