

Budget for Youth Law Day

Budgets will vary based on geographic location, amount of participants and the generosity of those involved.

Here are some typical expenses:

Breakfast/lunch – possible to barter with caterer

Substitute Pay –some schools will only participate if the cost of subs is covered

Space rental – law schools have been very gracious and have not charged

Audio/visual – assistance with videography, photography, microphones, presentation hardware – law schools have provided at no-cost

Student Travel – bus costs, etc.

Awards – for participating schools and presenters

Giveaways – for teachers, students, other participants

Accommodations for speakers, guests – if you start early in the morning, you may have presenters that need to come in the night before

Printing – programs, handouts
