THE BYLAWS OF THE NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

I. NAME

The name of this Association shall be "New York State Bar Association."

II. PURPOSES

Section 1. The purposes of the Association are to cultivate the science of jurisprudence; to promote reform in the law; to facilitate the administration of justice; to elevate the standard of integrity, honor, professional skill and courtesy in the legal profession; to cherish and foster a spirit of collegiality among the members of the Association; to apply its knowledge and experience in the field of the law to promote the public good; to promote and correlate the same and similar objectives in and among the Bar organizations in the State of New York in the interest of the legal profession and of the public and to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of New York.

Section 2. The Association holds an unwavering and longstanding commitment to diversity within its membership and leadership ranks based upon its firm belief that diversity, equity, and inclusion must be fostered within the legal community and in society at large. The Association is made stronger and more capable of implementing positive change through the law when its membership reflects the diversity of the individuals and communities served by the legal profession. Accordingly, the Association will promote and advance the full and equal participation of diverse attorneys in the profession and the Association, including diversity based on gender, race, color, ethnic origin, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, age, and disability.

III. MEMBERS AND AFFILIATES

Section 1. Membership. There shall be five classes of membership in the Association: Active, Associate, Honorary, Sustaining and Law Student, and the members shall be divided among such classes according to their eligibility.

A. Active Members. Any member of the legal profession in good standing admitted to practice in the State of New York may become an Active member by submitting any required application form and supporting documentation to the Executive Director. Upon payment of the applicable dues following such submission, the applicant shall immediately be entitled to all of the rights and subject to all responsibilities of membership.

B. Associate Members. Any member of the legal profession in good standing admitted to practice in any state, territory or possession of the United States or another country but not in New York may become an Associate member by submitting any required application form and supporting documentation to the Executive Director. Upon payment of the applicable dues following such submission, the applicant shall immediately be entitled to all of the rights and subject to all of the responsibilities of membership, with the exception of being an officer of the Association, being a member of the House of Delegates or Executive Committee, or serving as a Section Chair; provided, however, that upon the request of a Section Executive Committee and with the consent of the Association Executive Committee, an Associate member may serve as a Section Chair.

C. Honorary Members. Honorary members may be elected by the Association.

D. Law Student Members.

1. Any law student in good standing, if not otherwise eligible for membership in this Association, may become a Law Student member by written application to the Executive Director, endorsed as to the applicant's good standing as above prescribed on behalf of the applicant's law school, and by payment of the annual dues of the current year, provided that the law school is an approved law school under the Rules of the Court of Appeals. A Law Student member shall cease to be such at: (a) the end of the eighteenth month after graduation; (b) the end of the eighteenth month after the end of service in the Armed Forces of the United States or in any statutory substitute for such service, provided that the individual shall be eligible to continue as a Law Student member if the individual again becomes a law student and meets all qualifications for becoming a Law Student member; (c) such time as the individual becomes eligible for membership in the Association as an Active or Associate member; or (d) such time as the law student ceases to be enrolled in good standing in an approved law school and does not continue to qualify as a Law Student member under (a) or (b) above. A Law Student member shall be exempt from dues while in service of the Armed Forces of the United States or in any statutory substitute for such service.

2. A Law Student member shall have all the powers and privileges of an Active member of the Association except those of voting, being an officer of the Association, serving as a member of the Executive Committee or House of Delegates, or serving as Chair of a Section or Committee.

3. A Law Student member may become an Active or Associate member of the Association, as the case may be, without further application upon notice to the Association of admission to the bar of any state, territory or possession of the United States or another country within nine months after graduation from law school (exclusive of time spent in the Armed Forces of the United States or in any statutory substitute for such service) accompanied by payment of the annual dues for the current year.

E. Sustaining Membership. The House of Delegates shall have the power to establish Sustaining memberships in the Association and to fix from time to time the amount of dues therefor. Sustaining membership shall be available to such members of any class as are willing, for the support of the general work of the Association, to pay such amount as annual dues in any year, in lieu of the dues prescribed pursuant to Section 2 of this Article. A member who elects to be a Sustaining member in any year shall not be obligated thereby to continue as such in any subsequent year. Sustaining members shall have the same rights and privileges as pertain to the class of which they are a member. Subject to the provisions of this Article, the House of Delegates shall have power to make appropriate regulations as to such Sustaining membership and the collection of sustaining dues therefrom.

Section 2. Non-attorney Affiliates.

A. Any person:

1. holding a law degree but not admitted to practice in any state, territory or possession of the United States or another country who is employed by a law school approved under the rules of the Court of Appeals or who is employed by a bar association, or

May become a Non-attorney Affiliate of the Association by submitting any required application form and supporting documentation to the Executive Director. Upon payment of the applicable dues following such submission, the applicant shall immediately be entitled to all of the rights and subject to all of the responsibilities as if such person were a member, except those of voting, being an officer of the Association, being a member of the House of Delegates or Executive Committee, or being Chair of a Section or Committee. Non-attorney Affiliates are not entitled to hold themselves out as members and their status as Non-attorney Affiliate does not authorize them to practice law unless they otherwise have standing to do so.

Section 3. Dues. The annual dues of all members shall be in such amounts as may be fixed and determined from time to time by the House of Delegates. All such dues shall be payable at the beginning of the fiscal year of the Association. The House of Delegates upon recommendation of the Executive Committee and the Finance Committee shall have the power to prorate the annual dues for the current year of those who become members during the year; to suspend the accrual and payment of the dues of any member during the term of such member's service with the Armed Forces of the United States; and to waive, in whole or in part, the dues of any member or former member of the Association that may be in arrears or may thereafter become payable, or both.

Section 4. Assessments. The House of Delegates shall have the power to levy assessments in such annual amount and for such number of years as it shall determine on all classes of members alike, or in different amounts or proportions for different classes of members. All such assessments shall become payable at such time during the year as the House of Delegates may determine upon at least thirty days' notice to the members. The House of Delegates upon recommendation of the Executive Committee and the Finance Committee shall have the power to prorate the assessment for the current year of those who become members during the year; to suspend the accrual and payment of the assessment of any member during the term of such member's service with the Armed Forces of the United States; and to waive, in whole or in part, the assessment of any member or former member of the Association that may be in arrears or may thereafter become payable, or both.

Section 6. Termination of Membership.

A. If any member fails to pay yearly dues within the period designated by the Association for payment of dues, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to send a notice to the member stating that unless said dues are paid the member shall cease to be a member of the Association. If the dues are not paid by the member within 30 days of the date of the Treasurer's notice, the member's membership shall thereupon terminate.

B. If any member fails to pay any assessment within the period designated by the Association for the period of such assessment, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to send a notice to the member stating that unless said assessment is paid, the member shall cease to be a member of the Association. If the assessment is not paid by the member within 30 days of the date of the Treasurer's notice, the member's membership shall thereupon terminate.

C. The House of Delegates may suspend or expel any member for misconduct in the member's relations to the Association, or to the profession, upon the recommendation of the Committee on Professional Discipline after a hearing held by that committee upon reasonable notice to such member to appear and present a defense. Any member suspended or expelled from membership under the terms of this paragraph may be reinstated as a member only by vote of the House of Delegates.

D. Any member shall automatically be removed from membership in the event of a final court order of disbarment or suspension of the member from the practice of law in New York State. Any member suspended or expelled from membership under terms of this paragraph may not be reinstated to any class of membership until the end of such suspension or upon their readmission to practice law in New York.

Any member of the New York State Bar Association House of Delegates, chair of the Association's sections and committees, or local bar association represented in the New York State Bar Association House of Delegates may forward the names and relevant qualifications of suggested nominees to the Secretary of the Association by September 1 of the year preceding that in which the election is to be held.

(d) The Nominating Committee shall file its report of such nominations with the Secretary for announcement at the meeting of the New York State Bar Association House of Delegates immediately preceding that at which the election is to be held, and said report shall be open to inspection thereafter by any member of the Association. B. While serving on the Nominating Committee, a member shall not be eligible for nomination as President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, or member-at-large of the Executive Committee, provided, however, that a member of the Nominating Committee shall be eligible for nomination to the Executive Committee as a section member-at-large or a young lawyer member-at-large. A member may remove such ineligibility by resigning from the Nominating Committee in advance of the first meeting in the Association year of the Nominating Committee on which such person is serving. By majority vote at any meeting, the Nominating Committee may waive this deadline and accept the resignation unless nominations for the office for which the member wishes to be considered were reviewed at the first meeting.

C. At its second regular meeting after the Annual Meeting of the Association, the House of Delegates shall elect a Nominating Committee consisting of members from each judicial district as provided herein. The three at-large members and alternate member-at-large shall serve ex officio as provided in these Bylaws, without election by the House.

1. District members shall be selected by the Vice-Presidents and elected delegates from such judicial district on the following basis: Two members from each judicial district for up to the first 3,000 members of the New York State Bar Association in that district with the exception of the First Judicial District, which shall have three Nominating Committee members for such first 3,000 New York State Bar Association members; and a further Nominating Committee member for each additional 3,000 members, or major fraction thereof. One of the members so selected shall be a member of the House of Delegates at the time of selection and the other members so selected must have been members of the House of Delegates within two years of the time of selection or must currently be, or within two years of the time of selection must have been, section officers or the chairs of an Association committee.

2. The Vice-Presidents and elected delegates from each district shall also select alternate members from that district who must have been members of the House of Delegates within two years of the time of selection or must currently be, or, within two years of the time of selection must have been, a section officer or the chair of an Association committee, with the number of alternates to be determined as follows: each district shall be entitled to one alternate for its initial two Nominating Committee members and a further alternate for each additional three Nominating Committee members, or major fraction thereof. Service as an alternate delegate shall not constitute membership in the House of Delegates for purposes of this section.

3. In selecting the district members and alternates, the Vice-Presidents and elected delegates shall actively solicit and consult with the delegates to the House of Delegates from their respective districts. Such consultation shall be accomplished by a meeting of the delegates from each respective district, in person to the extent practicable or by telephonic equipment if necessary, to be held no later than 30 days before the meeting of the House of Delegates at which the Nominating Committee is to be named. The Vice-Presidents from each district shall file a written report with the President of the Association at least 10 days in advance of the meeting of the House of Delegates at which the Nominating Committee is to be named identifying their selections and summarizing the manner in which the solicitation and consultation process was conducted.

4. The foregoing formula for the designation of district members shall take effect for the Nominating Committee to be selected in 1999. The number of representatives selected in that year shall remain fixed for the ensuing four years, at which time the representative entitlements shall be recalculated pursuant to the foregoing formula, with this recalculation to be repeated thereafter at five-year intervals. For purposes of determining the number of members to which districts are entitled in those years when a calculation is to be made, December 31 of the year preceding the year of selection shall be the date as of which the number of members in districts shall be fixed.

5. The members-at-large shall be past Presidents at the time of their selection and will have completed their post presidency year on the Executive Committee by the time the next Nominating Committee convenes, and they shall serve in accordance with the following rotations:

(a) The immediate past President once removed shall be a member-at-large of the Nominating Committee.

(b) That same past President shall serve as chair of the Nominating Committee the following year.

(c) That same past President shall then again serve as a member-at-large of the Nominating Committee the year following service as chair.

(d) Following the three specified years, such past President may serve on the Nominating Committee only if otherwise elected or designated pursuant to these Bylaws, and subject to Bylaws limitations on consecutive terms of service.

6. The position of any member-at-large who is unable or unavailable to serve on the Nominating Committee for any meeting shall be filled by a past President, other than the immediate past President, designated in reverse order of past service. The foregoing provision notwithstanding, a vacancy in the position of chair shall be filled by an available past President who served most recently as chair. The past President who would be the first eligible and available to fill an at-large vacancy shall be designated as an alternate member-at-large.

D. A member of the Nominating Committee may not serve more than six consecutive terms either as a regularly designated member or alternate or in any combination of such two capacities. This paragraph shall not apply to service as a member-at-large of the Nominating Committee and such service as a member-at-large shall not be considered service on the Nominating Committee for the purpose of this paragraph.

E. Alternate members may attend all meetings of the Nominating Committee in a non-voting capacity. In the event a vacancy should arise in the position of a district member for any reason or should a district member be absent from a meeting of the Nominating Committee, an alternate member from that district shall to be designated to assume the responsibilities of that position by the chair of the Nominating Committee. Alternates for districts entitled to more than one alternate shall be prioritized at the time of selection, and shall serve, when necessary, in that order. In the event of a vacancy, the district alternate so designated shall then fill the unexpired balance of the one-year term of the member being replaced. In the event of an absence, the district alternate so designated shall replace the district member only for the meeting at which the district member is absent, unless the district member is also absent for subsequent meetings.

F. The model rules of the Nominating Committee shall remain in effect until subsequently amended. Each successive Nominating Committee shall be authorized to modify or add rules as it deems appropriate to govern its operations for that year only, with the rules to revert to the model rules format at the conclusion of that year. Any proposed permanent change to the model rules shall be authorized by vote of the House of Delegates.

G. Not later than 20 days before the first scheduled meeting of the House of Delegates after the Annual Meeting of the Association, the Nominating Committee shall file with the Secretary a written report of the members-at-large of the Nominating Committee designated by these Bylaws to serve during the following year. Notice of such designation shall be given by the Secretary to all members of the House of Delegates at the meeting.

Section 2. Nominations by Membership. Any 150 members of the Association with respect to any of the offices to be filled, or any 75 members residing in a judicial district with respect to the offices of Vice-President and elected delegate from that district, may also nominate candidates by filing a separate nomination for each candidate and office, signed by such members, with the Secretary not later than 25 days before the meeting at which the election is to take place.

Section 3. Reporting by Secretary.
