

INTERNATIONAL LAW PRACTICUM ARTICLE SUBMISSION

The International Law Practicum encourages article submissions on topics of interest to members of the Section. Writing an article for a NYSBA Section publication is a great way to get your name out in the legal community and advertise your knowledge. Our authors are respected internationally for their legal expertise in such areas as trade regulations and agreements, enforcement of foreign judgments, NAFTA, and international electronic commerce. MCLE credit may also be earned for legal-based writing directed to an attorney audience upon application to the CLE Board. NYSBA Guidelines for Obtaining MCLE Credit for Writing as well as a Publication Credit Application are available.

If you have written an article and would like to have it considered for publication in the International Law Practicum, please send it in electronic document format (pdfs are NOT acceptable), along with biographical information to:

Torsten M. Kracht, Esq.

You are also strongly encouraged to participate by submitting an article, a blurb or an announcement about you or your firm to the Chapter News. In upcoming issues, we hope to include the following:

- International Chapter News
- Section News
- Committee News

Additionally, we would appreciate receiving the following:

- firm news and/or press releases
- upcoming events, meetings and/or speaking engagements involving you or a member of your firm
- professional profiles
- pro bono and/or community events involving you or a member of your firm.

Please send any submissions in electronic document format (pdfs are NOT acceptable) to:
