Dear Mr. Park,

Thank you for your recent letter of support during this difficult time. We are glad to know that you and your colleagues at the Seoul Bar Association are safe and well. We are grateful that we were able to come together only 4 short months ago to support our joint efforts of collaboration in the legal arena.

The current COVID-19 crisis has been unlike any we've ever seen and while it brings deep concerns for our health and ways of life, we find that this may be our finest moment to shine. Through it we are making great strides in keeping our members abreast of continually changing information and legal resources for our communities. While this worldwide pandemic may bring about great fear, it will not hold us back from actively helping our friends and neighbors, such as the Seoul Bar Association.

We look forward to beginning our joint projects when this crisis is over and wish you good health until we meet again.

All the best to you, your members and your great country.

Sincerely,

Henry M. Greenberg
