

Alexandra Ferlise, Esq.

Brooklyn Defender Services
Brooklyn, New York

Alexandra Ferlise is a Senior Staff Attorney in the Law and Appeals Unit at Brooklyn Defender Services, where she advises trial attorneys on emerging appellate decisions, criminal procedure, and innovative legal strategies. She previously served as a Staff Attorney at the Center for Appellate Litigation, where she also began her work as a Public Interest Fellow during law school at Brooklyn Law School. Alexandra has been an active member of the New York State Bar Associations' Criminal Justice Section's Executive Committee for more than six years, contributing her appellate expertise to the Section's work and initiatives.